

I am concerned that an amendment or RC offered for public review, after public comment and discussion has concluded on Proposal 96, may be complicated and difficult to completely understand the allocative and biological effects in an abbreviated time period. I feel with the challenges of this proposal, the board should take no action or table the proposal to allow for public input from both user groups.

Julie Kavanaugh