(n) Removal for Cause. The joint board will, in its discretion, remove any member of a committee for cause. As used in this subsection, "cause" includes

- (1) unjustifiable absence from three consecutive meetings;
- (2) conviction of a crime or administrative disciplinary action for behavior inconsistent with the responsibility of committee or council membership within the preceding five years;
- (3) disregard for or violation of the provisions of 5 AAC 96 or 5 AAC 97 governing the committee and council system; or
- (4) failure, at any time, to meet the qualifications for committee membership.
