Enclosed is a listing of waters where anadromous fish have been observed during my 1997 field studies. Signatures from two employees, Robert Massengill and Jerry Strait, will not be available until they return from annual leave, anticipated to be the end of this week. I will retain the listing with the original signatures until all signatures are obtained; I will then send you the original copy. In addition, maps have been provided to depict specific geographic locations of observations. If you require any additional information, Ed, please advise.
