Emergency Order

ALASKA DEPARTMENT OF FISH & GAME

Under Authority of AS 16.05.060

Emergency Order No.: 1-9-98

Issued at: Juneau, June 1, 1998

Effective Date: Date: 12:01 a.m.
Saturday, June 6, 1998

Expiration Date: Wednesday, September 30 at 11:59 P.M. unless superseded by subsequent emergency order.

EXPLANATION:

This emergency order allows surplus hatchery-produced king salmon to be harvested in all fresh water drainages crossed by the Juneau City and Borough road system that are open to sport fishing. The daily bag and possession limit is two king salmon 28 inches or more in length and two king salmon less than 28 inches in length. This emergency order also allows the use of bait in the fresh waters of Fish Creek Pond (Douglas Island), and also allows anglers at the Fish Creek Pond to retain king salmon hooked elsewhere than in the mouth.

This emergency order is in effect from June 6 through September 30, 1998.

JUSTIFICATION:

The Alaska Board of Fisheries authorized the department to use its emergency order authority to open fresh waters to the harvest of surplus hatchery-produced king salmon. Hatchery-produced king salmon returning to Juneau area streams are not needed for broodstock. Therefore, the department is opening these freshwater systems to provide recreational anglers with the opportunity to harvest these surplus fish.

The Alaska Board of Fisheries also authorized the department to use its emergency order authority to liberalize methods and means of harvest if there is a surplus of hatchery-produced king salmon available in terminal harvest areas. The department expects that few fish will return to most fresh water streams crossed by the Juneau road system, with the exception of the Fish Creek Pond on Douglas Island. The number of king salmon returning to this pond is expected to exceed 500 fish. Therefore, the department is permitting anglers to use bait in the Fish Creek Pond to increase harvest of these fish. The use of bait is prohibited in all other freshwater drainages crossed by the Juneau road system from November 16 through September 14, except for Twin Lakes where bait is allowed throughout the year. Additionally, to further increase utilization of the king salmon at the pond, anglers may retain king salmon hooked elsewhere than in the mouth.
