

69. Eliza Lake fry stocking and evaluation 109 30-10060

This is a small barriered lake on the southern tip of Admiralty Island. The lake is within Wilderness area; an EA examining introduction of chinook on native species, and the effects of stocking on wilderness values was prepared. FRED division stocked 130,000 fed chinook fry in 1986.