ALASKA WILDLIFE PLANS

BROWN BEAR

THE MAPS

Skin the Basic Wildlife Plans for each species of wildlife are: Interior, Southcentral, Southwestern, and Southwestern. The maps for these areas are shown below. Each area is color-coded according to the management

MANAGEMENT GOALS

1. TO PROVIDE AN OPPORTUNITY TO PARTICIPATE IN HUNTING
   This goal recognizes the recreation value of hunting and emphasizes the principles of public participation. The goal recognizes the principle of public participation and the goal of providing the greatest opportunity for participation in hunting, and with other goals. The goal is strongly emphasized by the goal of providing an opportunity for hunting. The goal is strongly emphasized at the goal of providing the greatest opportunity for hunting. The goal is strongly emphasized at the goal of providing an opportunity for hunting.

2. TO PROVIDE AN OPPORTUNITY TO VIEW, PHOTOGRAPH AND ENJOY WILDLIFE
   This goal provides the opportunity for viewing, photographing and enjoying wildlifewhich have the potential for yielding information about wildlife. The goal is strongly emphasized at the goal of providing the greatest opportunity for participation in hunting. The goal is strongly emphasized at the goal of providing an opportunity for viewing, photographing and enjoying wildlife.