

Fish Transporter Permit Application

A commercial fish transporter is an individual who transports commercially caught salmon, herring, or pacific cod on behalf of the commercial fisherman to the buyer. Fish can be transported anywhere within the state through any means - truck, plane, four-wheeler, etc. to any licensed buyer or private party. If you are using a vessel to transport the fish, the vessel must be licensed through the Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission.

Beginning July 1, 2017, a $25 application processing fee needs to be submitted along with this application to ADF&G for permit approval. ADF&G payments can be submitted through the ADF&G store located at: <https://www.adfg.alaska.gov/Store/> or payments can be mailed in with the application via check or money order. Credit card payments can be submitted on a separate form located on the ADF&G website located at: <http://www.adfg.alaska.gov/index.cfm?adfg=fishlicense.sellers> or by calling ADF&G.
