

Proposal # 57

I am a issuee of a latent Kodiak herring sac roe combination purse sein/gillnet permit that I have not fished in several years due to price and market for sac roe. I think being able to use the permit during a later season to harvest food quality for developing new markets would be good for all permit holders.