Emergency Order No. 2-RS-2-62-22

Issued at: Palmer, Thursday, July 28, 2022

Effective Date: 5:00 a.m. Monday, August 1, 2022

Expiration Date: 10:00 p.m. Friday, August 12, 2022, unless superseded by subsequent emergency order.

EXPLANATION:

This emergency order increases the bag and possession limits for salmon, other than king salmon and coho salmon, 16 inches or greater in length to six fish for the waters of Fish Creek open to fishing for salmon. In addition, this emergency order allows sport fishing in Fish Creek seven days per week, from 5:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. each day. Retention of coho salmon is not allowed, except in the youth-only fishery, which occurs Saturday – Sunday, August 6 – 7. In the youth-only fishery, six salmon (other than king salmon) may be retained per day and in possession, of which no more than two may be a coho salmon. Weekend only fishing for all ages resumes per regulation (three salmon over 16 inches per day and in possession, of which only two may be a coho salmon), beginning 5 a.m. Saturday, August 13 after this emergency order expires. Other Knik Arm waters, including the Little Susitna River, Eklutna Tailrace, and Jim, Wasilla, and Cottonwood creeks remain unaffected by this emergency order.

JUSTIFICATION:

The sustainable escapement goal for sockeye salmon in Fish Creek is 15,000-45,000 fish. As of July 27, the weir count of 51,668 sockeye salmon has exceeded the SEG. Therefore, it is warranted to increase the bag and possession limit for sockeye salmon and open additional days of fishing. The SEG for coho salmon in Fish Creek is 1,200-4,400 fish. Weir counts to date indicate 13 coho salmon have passed the weir. As only 4% of the historical coho salmon run typically passes the weir by this date, it is too early to assess coho salmon abundance at this time, therefore sport fishing for coho salmon, will remain as written in regulation.
