

Agenda
HWI Science Panel Meeting
Virtual meeting via Microsoft Teams
November 22, 2021
9:00 AM to 5:00 PM

The goal of this meeting is to review 2021 activities, provide guidance for 2022, and discuss reporting and data sharing. Decisions will need to be made on priorities for processing samples, sample collections, and contracting activities for 2022.

- 1) Introductions
 - a. Science Panel
 - b. Staff
 - c. Contractors

- 2) Approve minutes from May 14, 2021

- 3) Budget Report (Pryor)
 - a. Proforma
 - b. Fund sources
 - i. Pink Salmon Disaster
 - ii. PNP
 - iii. Processors
 - iv. Grants
 - v. In-kind

- 4) Publications
 - a. RRS manuscript
 - b. Webpage updates

- 5) 2021 Contractor Reports
 - a. SEAK stream sampling summary, to include review of new efforts to achieve a more representative sample of the run –SSSC

b. 2022 SEAK stream sampling- options to increase success.

6) 2021 Lab Reports

- a. PWS Otolith – ADFG Cordova
- b. Southeast Otolith - MTAL
- c. Genetic – GCL
 - i. Lab progress
 - A. Tissues analyzed
 - B. Otolith shipping issue
 - ii. Statistical analysis

7) Additional 2022 Planning

- a. Outreach/presentation opportunities
 - i. January 25-27, 2022, Alaska Marine Science Symposium, Virtual; abstract submitted
 - ii. February 28- March 4, 2022, Hatchery-Wild Interaction Symposium, American Fisheries Society Meeting, Juneau with hybrid virtual; Kyle and Kristen co-chairing
 - iii. March 10, 2022, Board of Fisheries Hatchery Committee, Anchorage
 - iv. Do we plan a HWI Public outreach meeting this year?
- b. Other
 - i. Other publications- papers coming out.

8) Additional items

- a. Discuss field sampling for the F2's at Fish Creek (2023 and 2024).
- b. Process for release of new results:
 - a. Secondary analyses review by the Science Panel
 - b. Policy development
- c. Planning the end game.