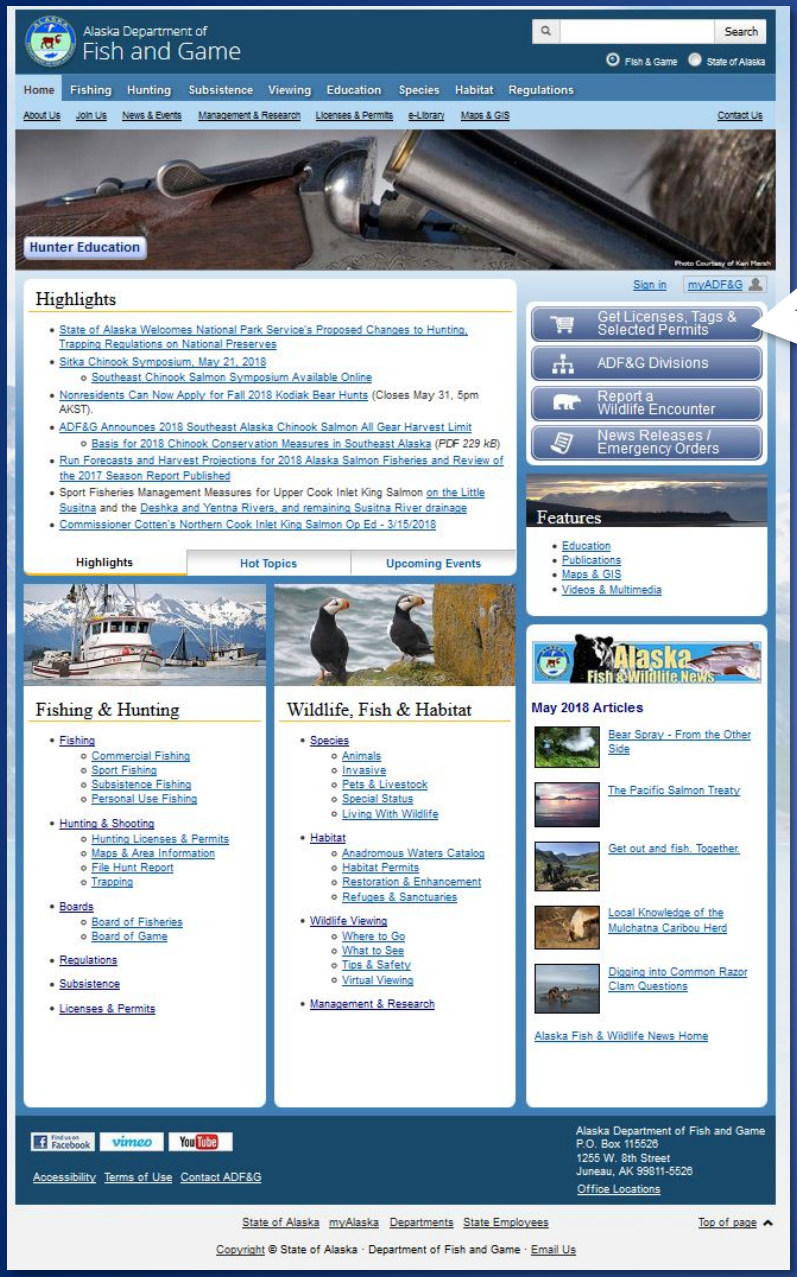
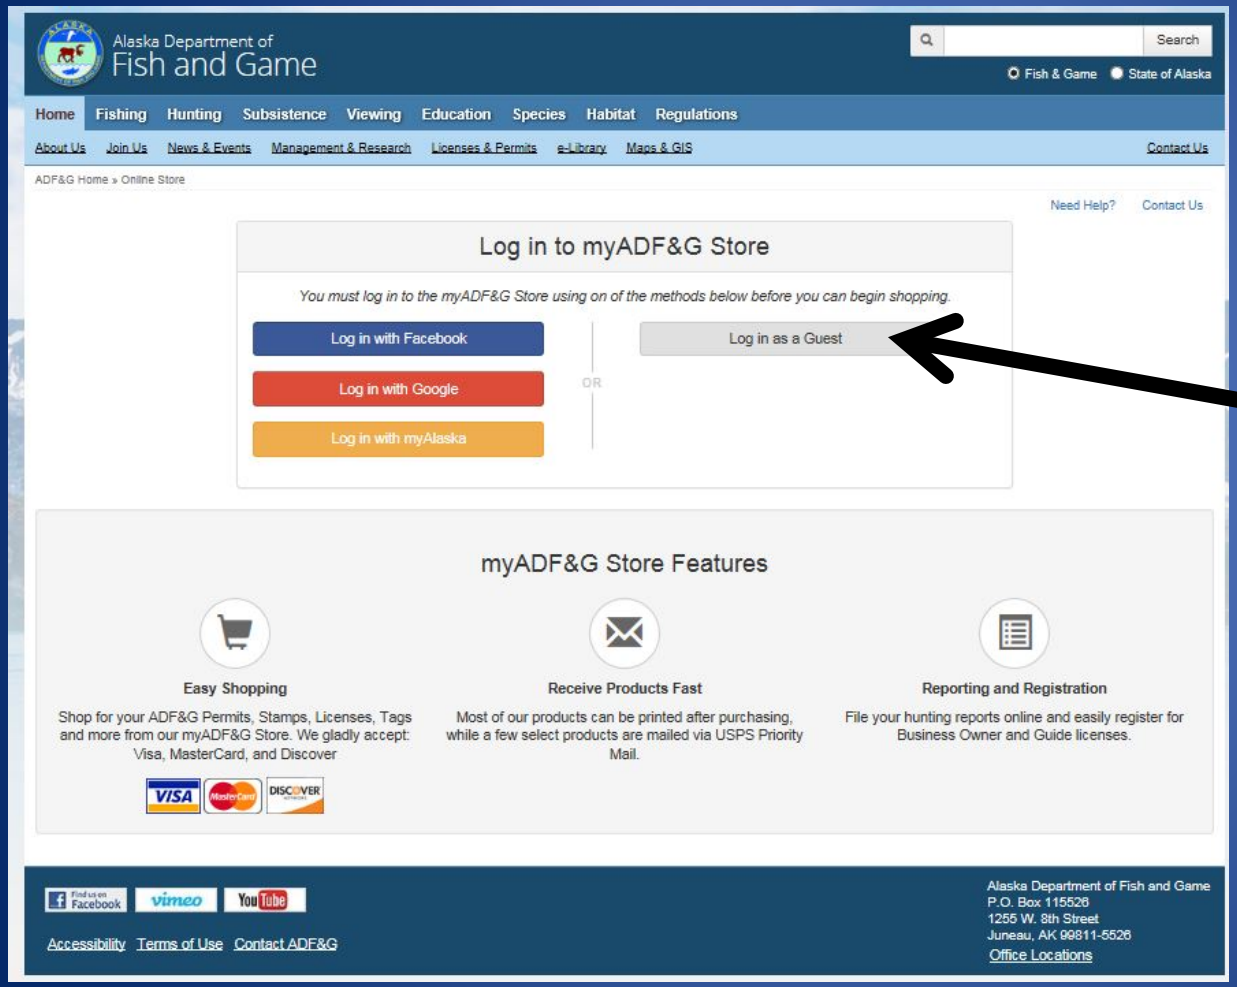
How to apply for your Online Subsistence and Personal Use Permit



From the main ADF&G web page you can click on the "Get Licenses, Tags and Selected Permits"

You made it—Let's start your permit application.



You can use any of the 4 buttons, but for now let's log in as a "Guest".

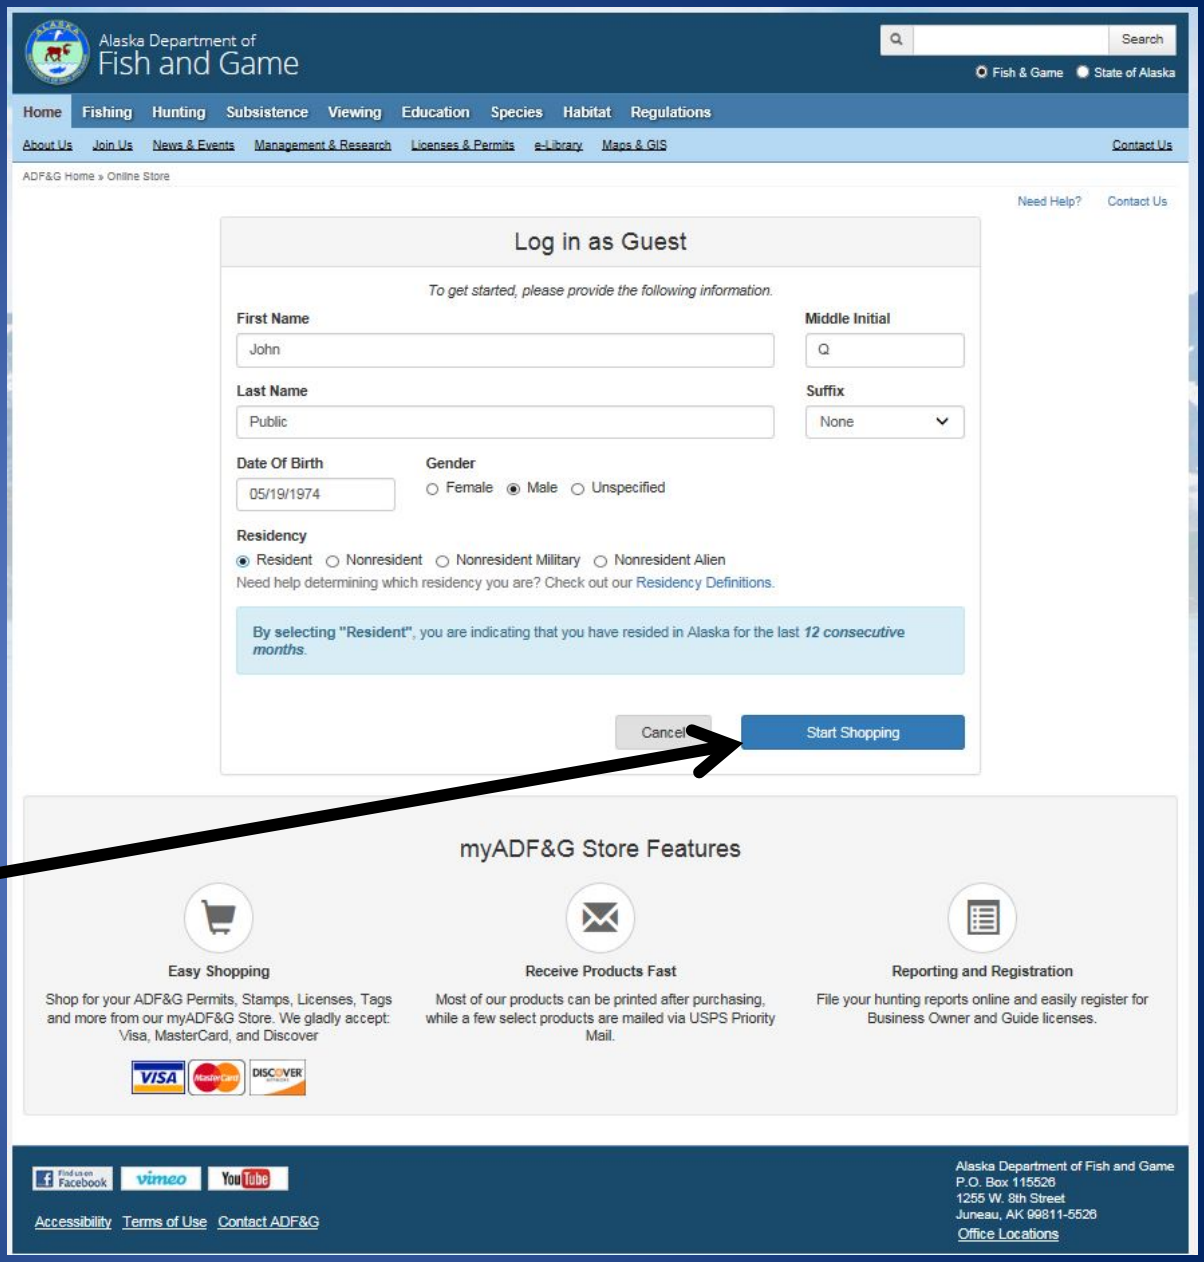
In your browser Click this button.

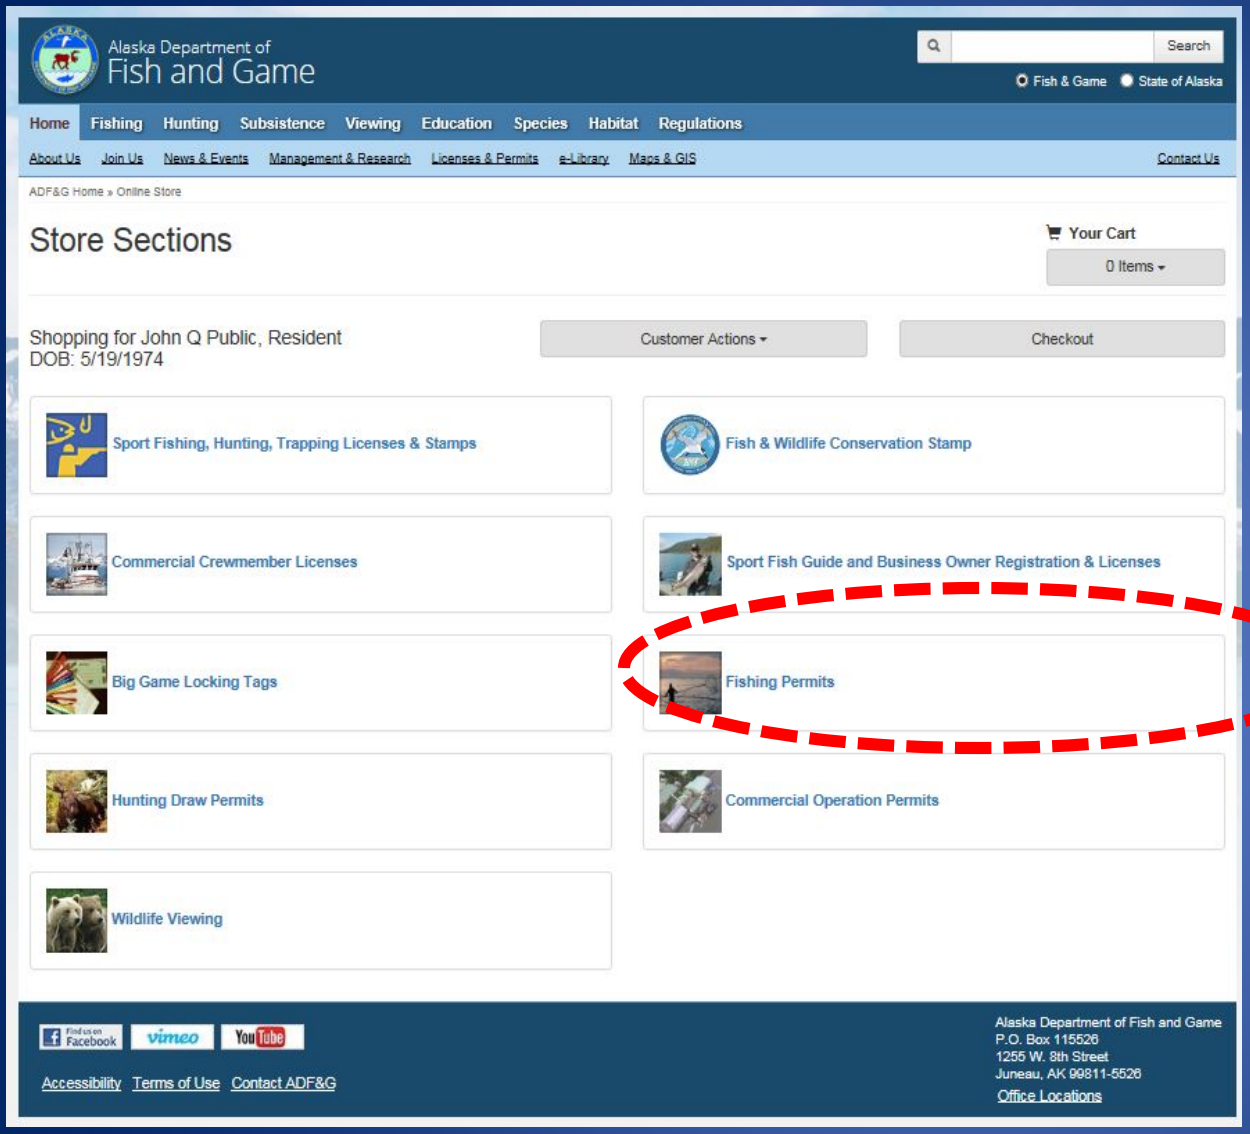
Fill in the required boxes.

Important — Subsistence and/or Personal Use Permits are only available to Alaska Residents.

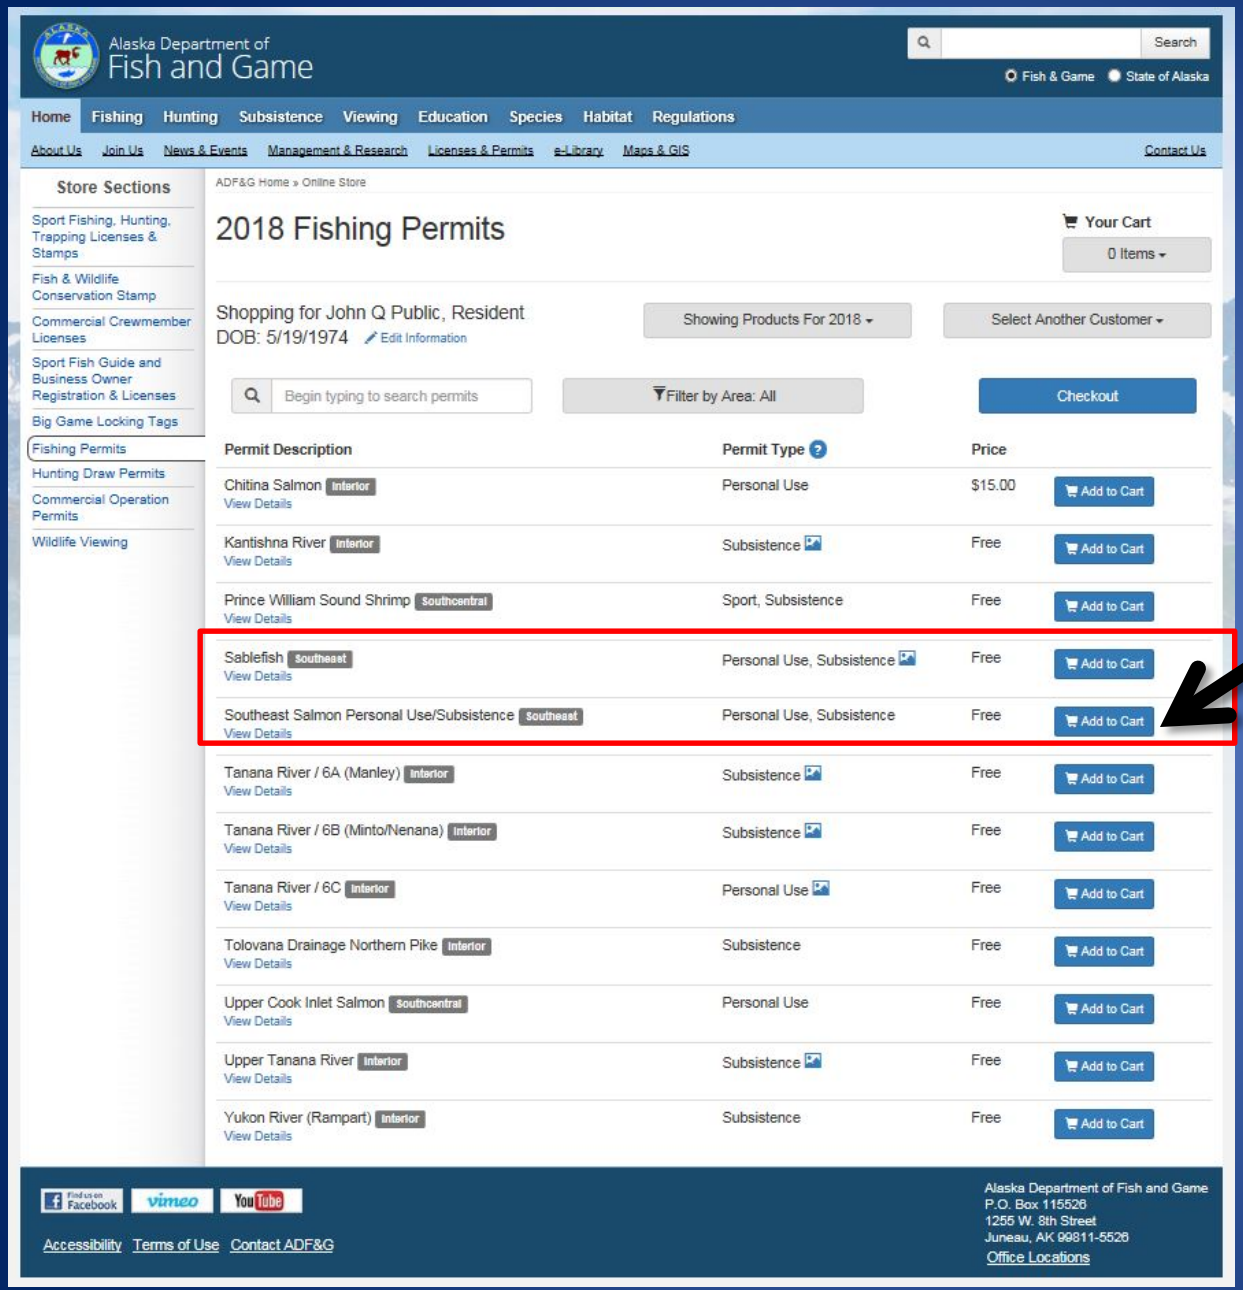
Once you have entered your info, click the “Start Shopping” button.

Don’t worry, Subsistence and Personal Use Permit are FREE





In your browser Click "Fishing Permits"



For Southeast Alaska and Yakutat we currently offer Subsistence / Personal Use Salmon and Sablefish (Black Cod) permits.

For now let's choose "Southeast Salmon Personal Use/Subsistence"

Note:
King Crab and Shrimp permits will also be available online in the near future!

The selected item(s) will appear in RED.

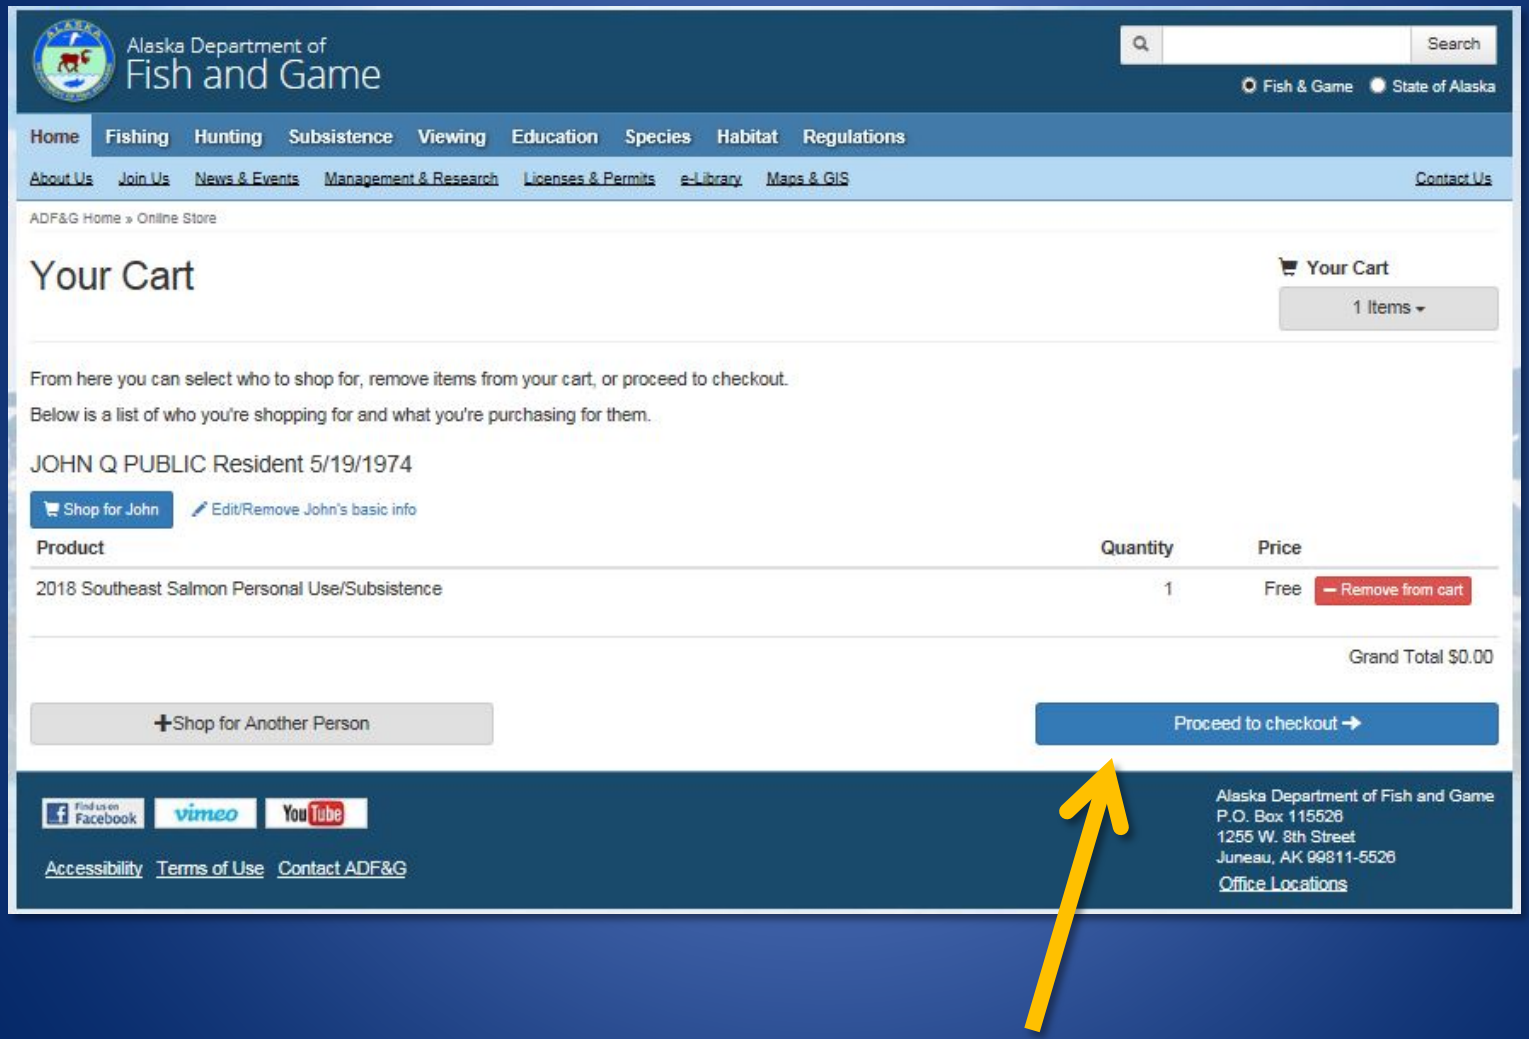
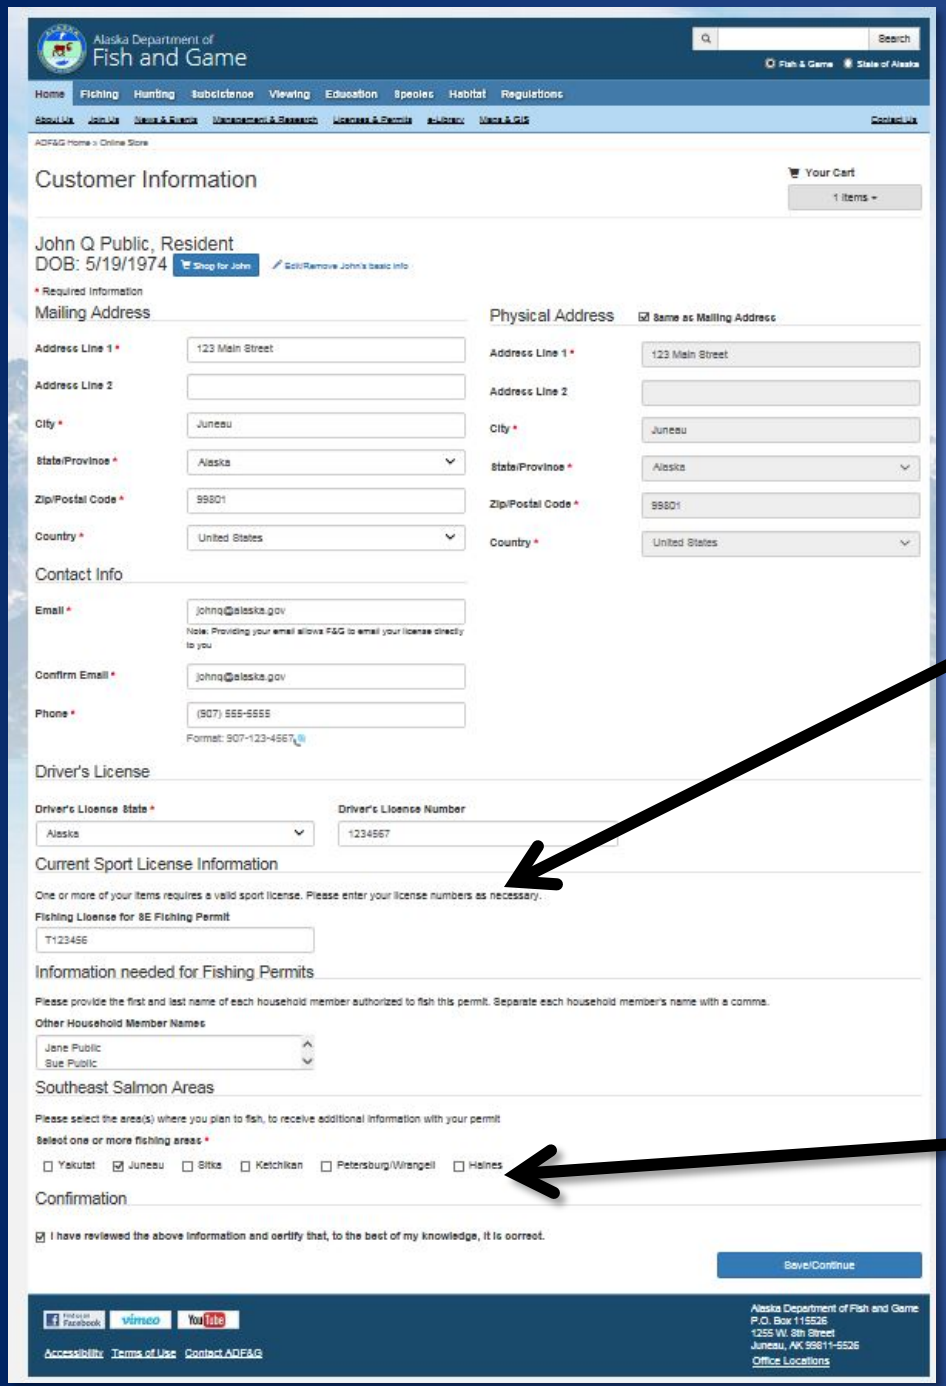
If you are satisfied with your selection(s)—let's check out.

Click the "Checkout" button in your browser.

Review your order
If it all looks good, click the “Proceed to Checkout” button.





Almost done!

The Customer Information should autofill. If not, you may need to enter it again.

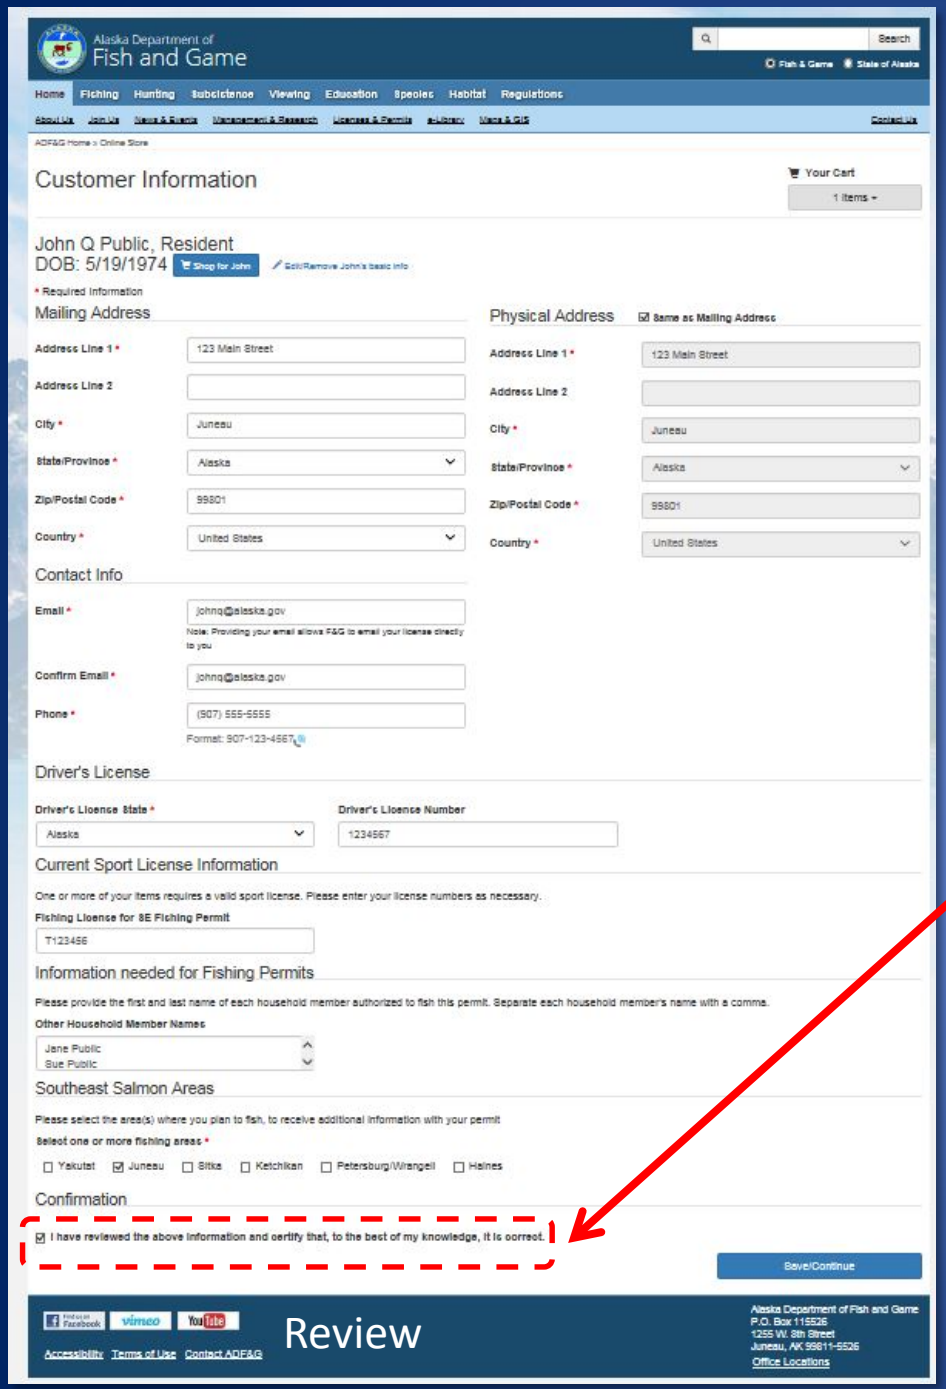
You will need to add the names of other household members who may want to fish with your permit.

Why do I need a fishing license?

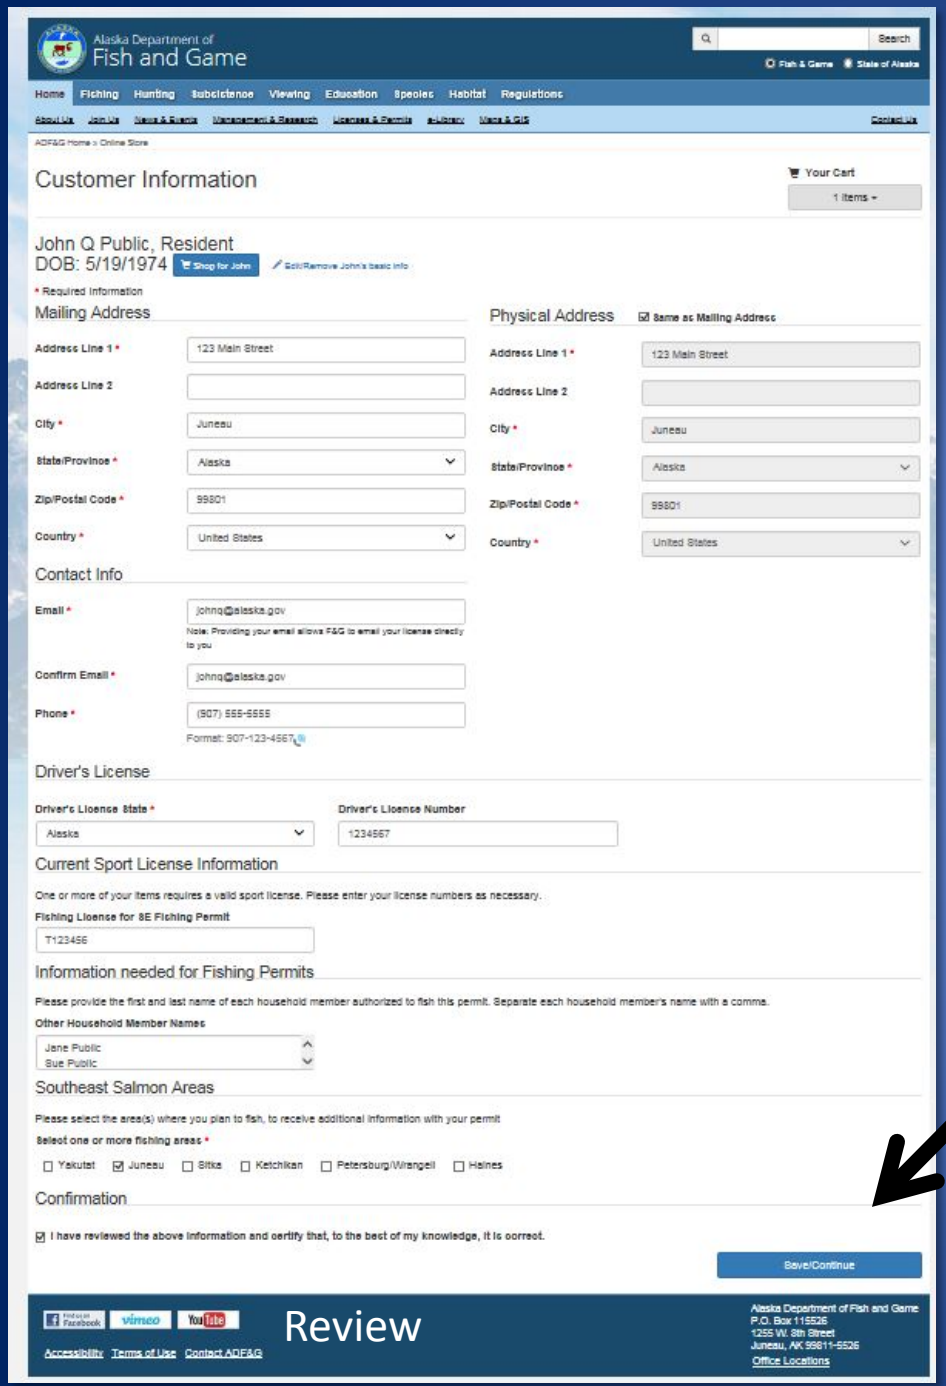
This is only needed if fishing in a Personal Use area.

VERY IMPORTANT

Choose the area(s) you intend to fish. This will give you the area-specific info like bag limits, season dates, etc.

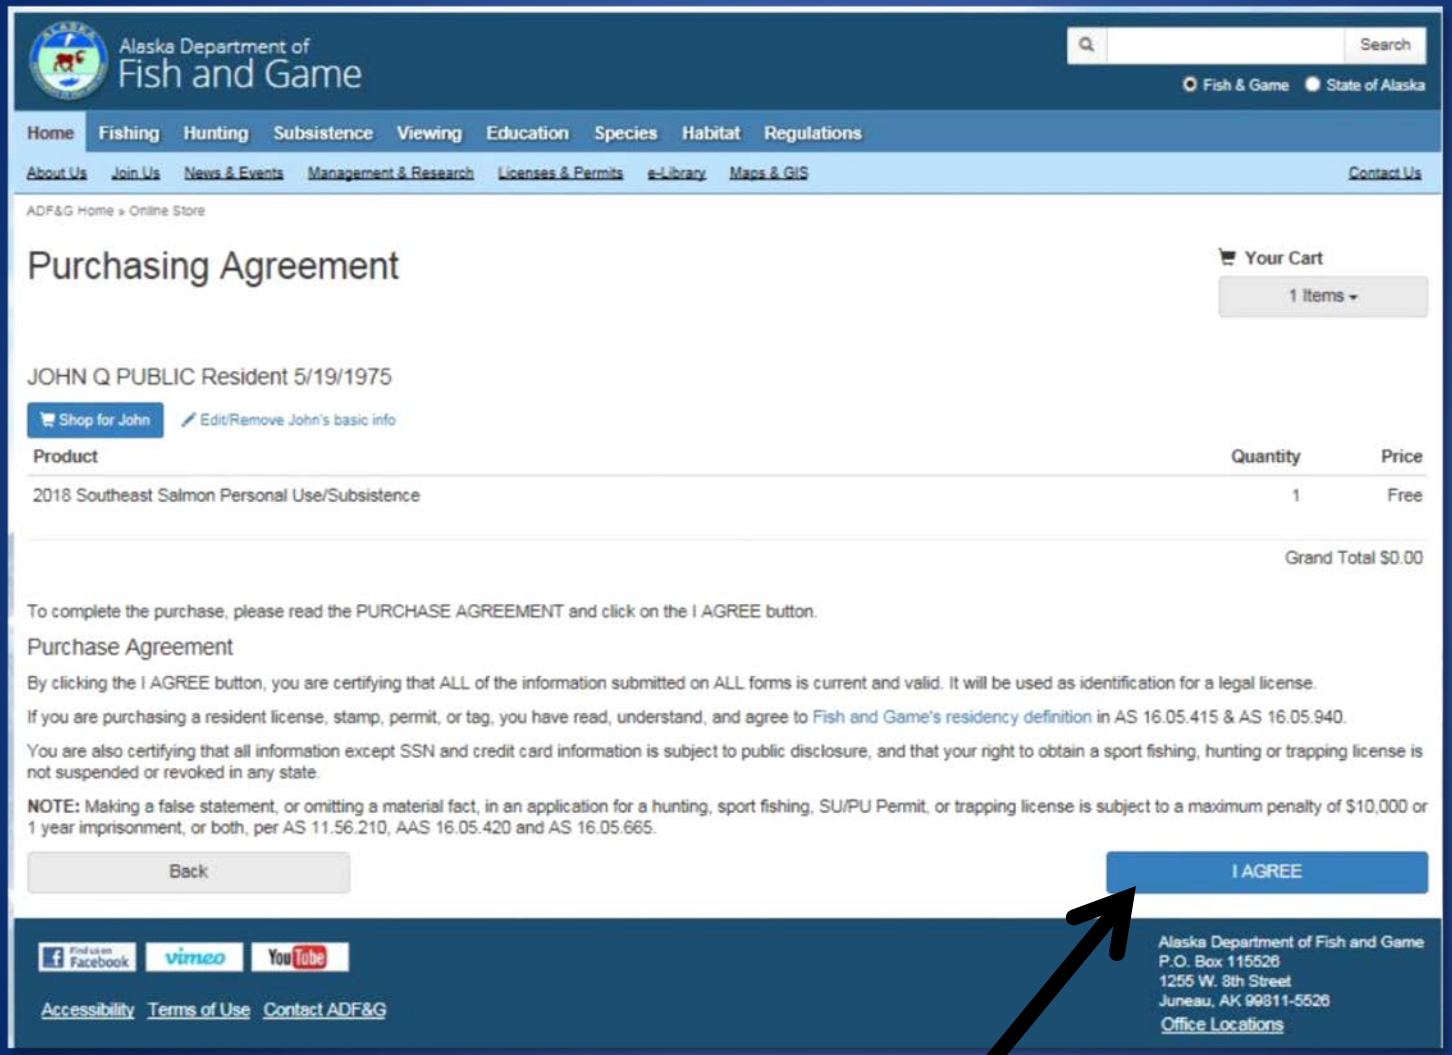


Review your info and if it is correct, check the box



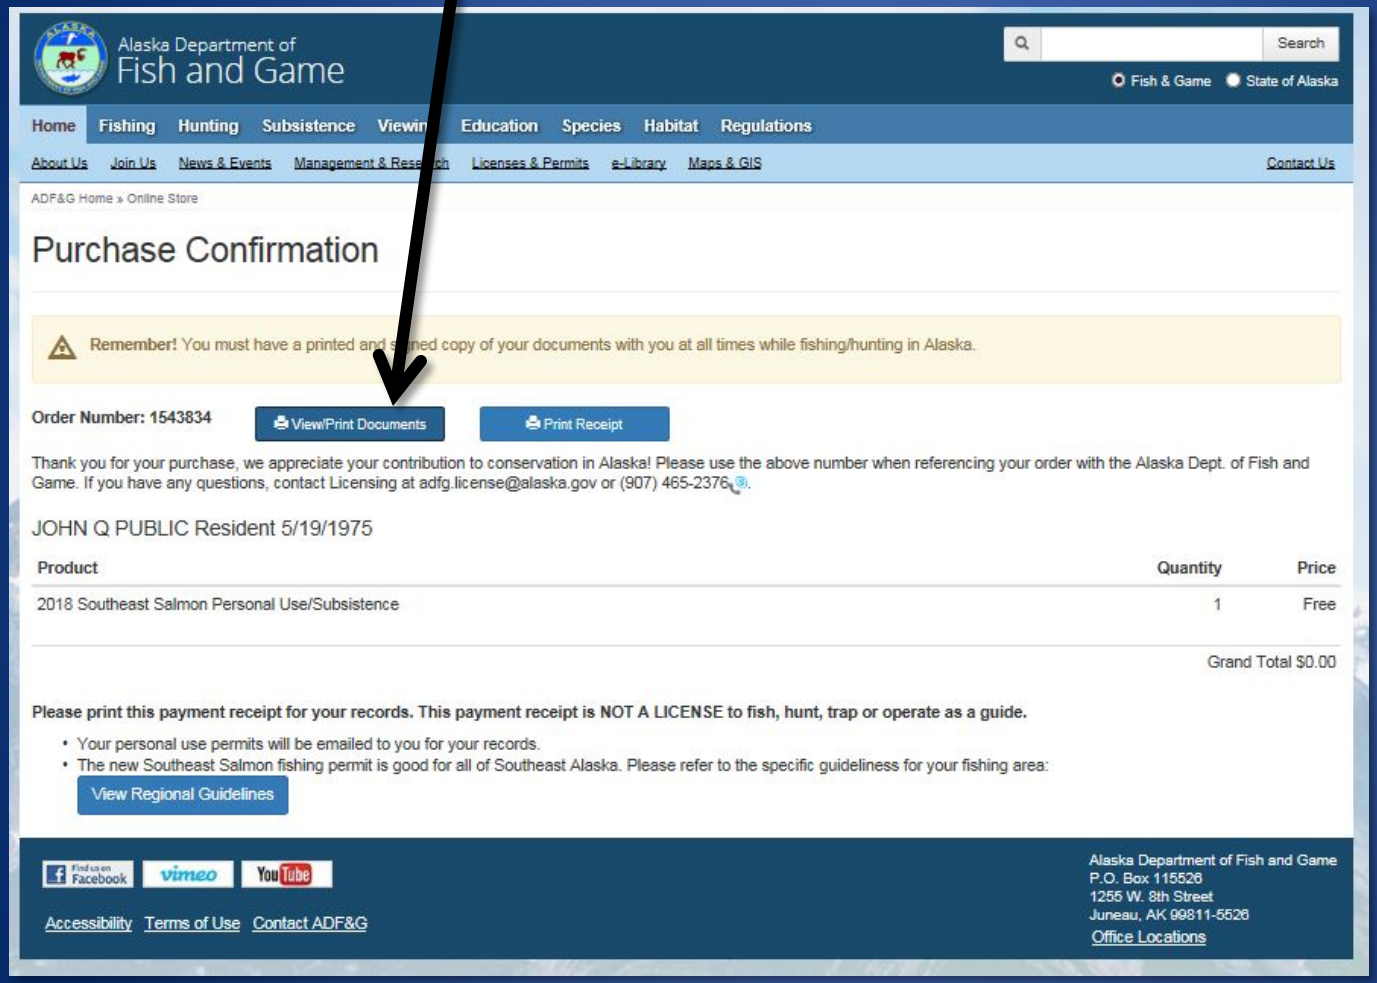
Click “Save/Continue”

Carefully read the Purchasing Agreement.



If you agree with the statement, click “I Agree”.

You can View or print your documents by clicking here.



Remember to sign you permit and have it at all times when participating in Southeast Alaska Personal Use/Subsistence Fisheries.
