Request for Release of COAR Data to a Third Party

(Limited Power of Attorney)

As specified in Alaska Statute 16.05.815, fish ticket records and annual statistical reports of individual buyers and processors are confidential. The Alaska Department of Fish and Game can provide a data summary of records from the Commercial Operator's Annual Reports (COAR) to authorized representatives of the buyer or processor. Release of individual COAR records to a third party requires completion of this limited power of attorney form. The Request for Release of COAR Data to a Third Party must be completed and signed in the presence of a notary public. Picture identification may be required.

This form is valid no less than 30 days and no longer than one calendar year. The requestor shall indicate the effective end date on this form.

This form must be sent to the address provided below. No documents will be sent until the original signed and notarized form has been received. Please complete every item on the form that applies, and print legibly or type, failure to do so may cause delays in the release of your records.

COAR data are available from 1984 forward. Submit the notarized form to:
