Contract and Appointment for License Vendor

Terms and Conditions of Appointment

(Please keep this contract for you records)

1. License Sales

Licenses are sold electronically through eVendor (www.adfg.alaska.gov/eVendor). eVendor is a clerk-driven computer application that allows a license vendor to sell Fish and Game products such as; sport licenses, commercial crewmember licenses, big game metal locking tags, etc.

2. Necessary Equipment

Fish and Game will NOT be providing any equipment for vendors. Here are the things you will need in order to sell licensing items:

- A computer with internet connection: The ideal set up for eVendor is at a counter with the computer facing the clerk and the customer on the other side. eVendor is a web application that can be run through any internet browser (www.adfg.alaska.gov/eVendor).
- PDF reader/viewer: Our licenses are generated into PDFs. You will need the ability to open these PDFs and print them.
- Printer: A basic black and white printer is required. Licenses are printed in black and white on 8.5 X 11 white printer paper.
- Driver's License Barcode Scanner (Optional): By scanning a customer's driver's license, the system will automatically input a customer's name, date of birth, driver's license number, address, and gender.
 - Driver's license scanners MUST be "Driver's License Parsing Ready." A good indicator is whether it has DL in the model number. Fish and Game does not provide scanners, however, can provide a list of compatible scanners.

3. eVendor Account and Licensee Information Accountability

The license vendor must create and manage user accounts as outlined in the following security policies:

- Each user must have an individual account (personal username and password).
- An account cannot be shared amongst co-workers.
- If an employee no longer works for the establishment, you must deactivate their account immediately as you will be held accountable for any activity.
- The act of releasing any licensee's personal information is prohibited.
- Subsequent license reprints are only allowed for individuals who can present valid identification.

4. Accounting

The net revenue for license item sales is property of the State of Alaska. The license vendor must remit all money received from license, stamp, and metal locking tag sales to the Department of Fish and Game. If the license vendor accepts commission, they may retain the commission authorized by Section 6 of this contract.

Contract and Appointment for License Vendor

Terms and Conditions of Appointment

- A. The license vendor must submit payment for sales monthly. An invoice will be generated from eVendor on the first day of each month. Payment must be submitted within fifteen (15) days of the following month. The license vendor, in their absence, will appoint an alternate person to prepare payment due to the department.
- B. The license vendor must return all unused metal locking tags to the Department of Fish and Game within thirty (30) days of the end of their selling season or the calendar year, whichever comes first. The tags must be summarized by type and serial number on a Returned Supplies Summary Sheet.
- C. The Department of Fish and Game must receive written notification of changes in business ownership, vendor contact person, address, or phone number within ten (10) days of the change.

5. Inspection of Records

The Department of Fish and Game as well as State and Federal enforcement personnel, have the right to inspect and audit all records relating to the sale of licenses and licensing inventory to ensure compliance with this contract and state law. The license vendor agrees to display all records relating to the sale of licenses and licensing inventory to the Department of Fish and Game or Public Safety immediately upon request.

6. Compensation

- A. The license vendor may elect to receive a commission of five percent (5%) or twenty-five cents ($.25) of gross sales, whichever is greater, on all sport licenses, stamps, and metal locking tags issued pursuant to AS 16.05.390. The rate of commission for commercial crewmember license sales is ten percent (10%) pursuant to AS 16.05.470. The commission is retained by the license vendor when submitting monthly payment.
- B. In addition to the above commission, the Department of Fish and Game will pay the license vendor $1.00 per sport license, stamp, and tag or $50.00 per year, whichever is greater, for licenses, stamps, and metal locking tags issued pursuant to AS 16.05.390. Payments will be applied to any overdue balance on the vendor's account. Please note: Persons employed by the State of Alaska are not eligible to receive commission or compensation payments for licenses per AS 16.05.390(e).
- C. The license vendor may choose to donate their commission and compensation to the Fish and Game Fund. The fund is dedicated to the protection, propagation, investigation, and restoration of Sport Fish and Game Resources.

7. Lost, Missing, or Stolen Metal Locking Tags

- A. The license vendor will keep all metal locking tags in a locked and secure place. All metal locking tags received must be compared against the inventory receiving report. Discrepancies must be reported to Fish and Game upon receipt of the locking tags.

Contract and Appointment for License Vendor

Terms and Conditions of Appointment

- B. The license vendor must report to the Department of Fish and Game within twenty-four (24) hours any lost, missing, or stolen metal locking tags.
- C. The license vendor is liable to the Department of Fish and Game for the value of all missing or stolen metal locking tags.

8. Default and Termination

- A. In the event that the license vendor fails to perform their duties or obligations as stated in this contract, the license vendor will be in default.
- B. The license vendor has thirty (30) days to correct any compliance problems as notified by the Department of Fish and Game. The Department of Fish and Game may terminate this contract if the license vendor fails to comply.
- C. In addition to termination of this contract, the Department of Fish and Game shall have all other remedies allowed by law, including the right to recover money due to the Department of Fish and Game.
- D. The Department of Fish and Game, by written notice to the license vendor, may terminate this contract at any time when it is determined that it is in the best interest of the State of Alaska to do so.
- E. The license vendor may terminate this contract at any time and must provide thirty (30) days written notice of termination.
- F. Upon notice of termination by either the license vendor or the Department of Fish and Game, a final payment of all monies due to the State must be submitted. All unused metal locking tags must be returned to the Department of Fish and Game. Please Note: Fish and Game metal locking tags cannot be transferred to another vendor without prior authorization.

9. Regulations

In addition to the provisions set forth in this contract, the rights, duties, and obligations of a license vendor are governed by statute and regulations (AS 16.05 and 5 AAC 93.550 – 5AAC 93.570 et seq). The parties agree that the provisions of these statutes and regulations apply to this contract.

10. Term Renewal

- A. This contract and appointment will be terminated at midnight, December 31st of the current application year.
- B. This contract may be renewed only by execution of a new contract by both parties.
