Below are some guidelines to help determine whether or not you meet the residency requirements to purchase/receive a State of Alaska resident sport fishing, hunting, trapping, or commercial crewmember license:

Per Alaska Statute 16.05.940(27)“ ‘resident’ means (A) a person who for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the time when the assertion of residence is made has maintained the person’s domicile in the state and who is neither claiming residency in another state, territory, or country nor obtaining benefits under a claim of residency in another state, territory, or country;...”

“Residency” is further defined and explained in Alaska Statute 16.05.415(a) &(b) as “(a) a person ... is a resident if the person (1) is physically present in the state with the intent to remain in the state indefinitely and to make a home in the state;

[Note: a. you must be physically present in Alaska in order to obtain a resident license.]

b. you must intend to remain in the state indefinitely and to make your true and permanent home in Alaska. Living in Alaska for a short period of time, 6 months or less, and spending the majority of the year somewhere else probably does not constitute the intent to remain indefinitely. Consideration is given to other factors. See below.]

(2) has maintained the person’s domicile in the state for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the application for a license; [Note: for the previous 12 consecutive months you must have maintained a livable dwelling in Alaska.

Consideration is given to the type of dwelling maintained here vs. the type of dwelling maintained somewhere else.]

(3) is not claiming residency in another state, territory, or country; and

[Note: you cannot have voted as a resident in another state, registered your car or have a driver’s license in another state unless required by that state’s laws to do so; Alaska law requires that a person who resides in the state and is not employed must register their vehicles in Alaska within 60 days of entering the state in accordance with AS 28.10.212; additionally a person who is employed in Alaska or takes an action that indicates an intention to acquire residence in the state must register their vehicles within 10 days. A person establishing residency in Alaska must obtain an Alaskan drivers license within 90 days and must surrender any out of state driver’s license in accordance with AS28.15.011 & 021. You may not hold a “resident” hunting or fishing license in another state, and may not have held one during the past 12 months.]

(4) is not obtaining benefits under a claim of residency in another state, territory, or country.

[Note: you cannot be claiming residency for COLA retirement benefits in another state, paying resident vs. nonresident taxes in another state, receiving subsidized or free benefits available only to a resident of another state, or gaining any advantage provided to residents of another state, etc.]

(b) A person who establishes residency in the state under (a) of this section remains a resident during an absence from the state unless during the absence the person

(1) establishes or claims residency in another state, territory, or country; or

(2) performs an act, or is absent under circumstances , that are inconsistent with the intent required under (a) of this section.

[Note: You may not have made any public or private declaration that indicates an intent to maintain a domicile anywhere but Alaska.]

“Domicile” is defined in Alaska Statute 16.05.940 as “the true and permanent home of a person from which the person has no present intention of moving and to which the person intends to return whenever the person is away;”

[Note: the purchase of round trip tickets or the making of return plans each time a person travels to Alaska would probably constitute evidence that the person's true and permanent home was elsewhere than Alaska. The location of household goods, the location where the spouse or family members of the household live and work, the location where children attend school, and other factors will also aide in determining where the true and permanent home is.]

Per Alaska Administrative Code 5 AAC 39.975(30) and 5 AAC 92.990(14), evidence of domicile includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(A) statements made to obtain a license to drive, hunt, fish, or engage in an activity regulated by a government entity;

(B) affidavit of a person who may know an applicant's domicile;

(C) place of voter registration;

[Note: see (3) under "Residency" above.]

(D) location of residence owned, rented, or leased;

[Note: see (1&2) under "Residency" above. The courts also look at the number of months you spend at a domicile located in another state vs. the number of months you spend in Alaska. For example, if you spend 9 months in another state and 3 months in Alaska, your residency in Alaska could be in question and will be taken into consideration along with other factors.]

(E) location of storage of household goods;

[Note: if your household goods are located in another state, it appears that you have not made your home here.]

(F) location of business owned or operated;

[Note: if your business is located in another state, you may need to explain to enforcement how your business is operated. On the other hand, you will not qualify as a resident merely by virtue of an interest in, or employment or contractual association with and Alaska-based business, see AS 16.05.415(g).]

(G) residence of spouse and minor children or dependents;

[Note: You are unlikely to be considered a resident of Alaska if your immediate family is living in another state or claiming another state as their residence while you consider Alaska your home.]

(H) governments to which taxes are paid;

[Note: see (4) under "Residency" above.]

(I) whether the person has claimed residence in another location for the purpose of obtaining benefits provided by the governments in that location."

[Note: see (4) under "Residency" above.]

If you are a member, or a dependent of a member, of the military or U.S. Coast Guard stationed in Alaska, you should also review the provisions of AS 16.05.415(c)-(d) and AS 16.05.940(27)(C)-(D).
