

MESA3 COLVILLE RIVER DELTA

LEGEND

-  Black Brant Nesting Concentrations
-  Waterfowl Nesting Concentrations
-  Waterfowl Molting Concentrations
-  Waterfowl Fall Concentrations
-  Common Eider Nesting Concentrations
-  Seabird Colonies (Less Than or Equal To 10,000 Birds)
-  Spotted Seal Haulout Concentrations
-  Historical Polar Bear Dens
-  Anadromous Waters

SOURCES: ADF&G 1986a,b; ADF&G 1996a; USFWS 1996; L. Lowry, ADF&G, spotted seal pers. comm., 1996; J. Winters, ADF&G, spotted seal pers comm., 1996a; Research Planning, Inc., 1999.

NOTES: Largest black brant nesting colony on the North Slope of Alaska. Nesting concentration areas of common eiders on Thetis Island.

Scale 1:250,000

State of Alaska
Department of Fish and Game
Habitat and Restoration Division
June, 2001

-  Ringed Seal: Breeding and pupping along shorefast ice
-  Salmon: All waters, including sloughs, lakes, and ponds within the Colville River Delta are designated anadromous.

Harrison Bay

Eskimo Islands

Atigaru Pt.

Tolaktovut Pt.

Thetis Island

Anachfik Island

Nuekshat Island

Nuiqsut

