RE: Alaska Bering Sea Crabbers Withdraws Proposals 262 and 263

Dear Chairman Morisky and Board Members,

Alaska Bering Sea Crabbers (ABSC) withdraws Proposal 262 (Modify the Bering Sea C. opilio harvest strategy definition of "exploited legal males") and 263 (Incidentally harvesting Bering Sea district c. bairdi during a directed C. opilio season). Please refer to ABSC's public comment letter (PC2) submitted to the Board of Fisheries on February 21 for further details on our decision to withdraw.

Sincerely,

Jamie Goen
Executive Director
Alaska Bering Sea Crabbers
