

CAMF Opposition to RC 245

CAMF strongly opposes RC 245. The proposed language would materially alter fishing dynamics in a manner that increases chum salmon harvest while constraining the fleet's operational flexibility to target sockeye salmon when they are available and abundant. It would be very detrimental to the cities of False Pass, King Cove and Sand Point. It would also effect the many Alaskans that rely on the fishery.