

I am having difficulty comprehending the state of emergency. What precisely constitutes the emergency? Why is it deemed necessary to eliminate bears and wolves at this time? Where is the data to substantiate that this is indeed an emergency? Furthermore, where is the evidence demonstrating any positive impact from the actions taken over the past two years warranting an additional year of elimination effort? Kindly provide the public with the data that supports your measures.