

I oppose the State's RC009. There has been absolutely no public notice given for this process, and this proposal for emergency regulations was not even available at the start of the BOG meeting. As well, there is no new science that ADFG has done that remedies the court's recent finding that the program is not justified based on science, nor is it constitutional. Please reject RC009.